

Winter is fast approaching in the Kashmir region of Pakistan. The dropping temps are making our efforts all the more urgent. We are now hauling corrugated steel that the earthquake survivors are using to fabricate shelter.

